The tome of knowledge

Dany, Ricky and Tommy are waiting for pizza together

Hey Dany, ...

thanks for the help last week!

You really helped us
with the Lab work

Yea, we've clearly got a better mark thanks to you!

The mark from a single lab is not that important

I've learned a lot from Dany

This makes my dream to fight climate change more of a reality

From the last episode: the lecturer whose students have the highest pass rate wins a terrible privilege:

A group of four students are gathered around a round wooden table in a warm, dimly lit pub. One student with blue hair and glasses is speaking, while the others listen. The pub has wooden walls, hanging lights, and large arched windows.

Yeah, I feel like we can take on anything now.

To fail any one student of their choice!

I want to help my friends
pass the courses, but ...

by helping them I'm making it easier for Pupon to win
and then fail me.

What should I do?

Hehehe!

Should I stop helping my friends?
But then they might fail.

Should I continue?
But then I might fail.

I'll have to find a way to navigate this conflict of interest.

You know, I really wish we could get our hands on Hanton's notes

Wait a minute, isn't that Hanton over there?

Indeed, Hanton was having dinner in the same place

Let's go ask him for the notes

Easy!

I'm ... I'm not sure if this is a good idea.

The trio approach Hanton's table

Hey Hanton,
we were wondering if we could take a look at your notes

Hanton answers, looking arrogant and uninterested

My notes won't do you any good

They're just focused on specific details
that won't help you learn,

... at least not at
your current level.

Riky is holding Tommy back

How dare you!

Relax; he is not worth it

Grrrr!

Is there something else
that I can do to help you?

No thanks, you have done enough ...

The trio return to their table, looking dejected

No way! We can still get those notes

I don't know guys;
maybe we should just leave it

So, we should just act NOW!

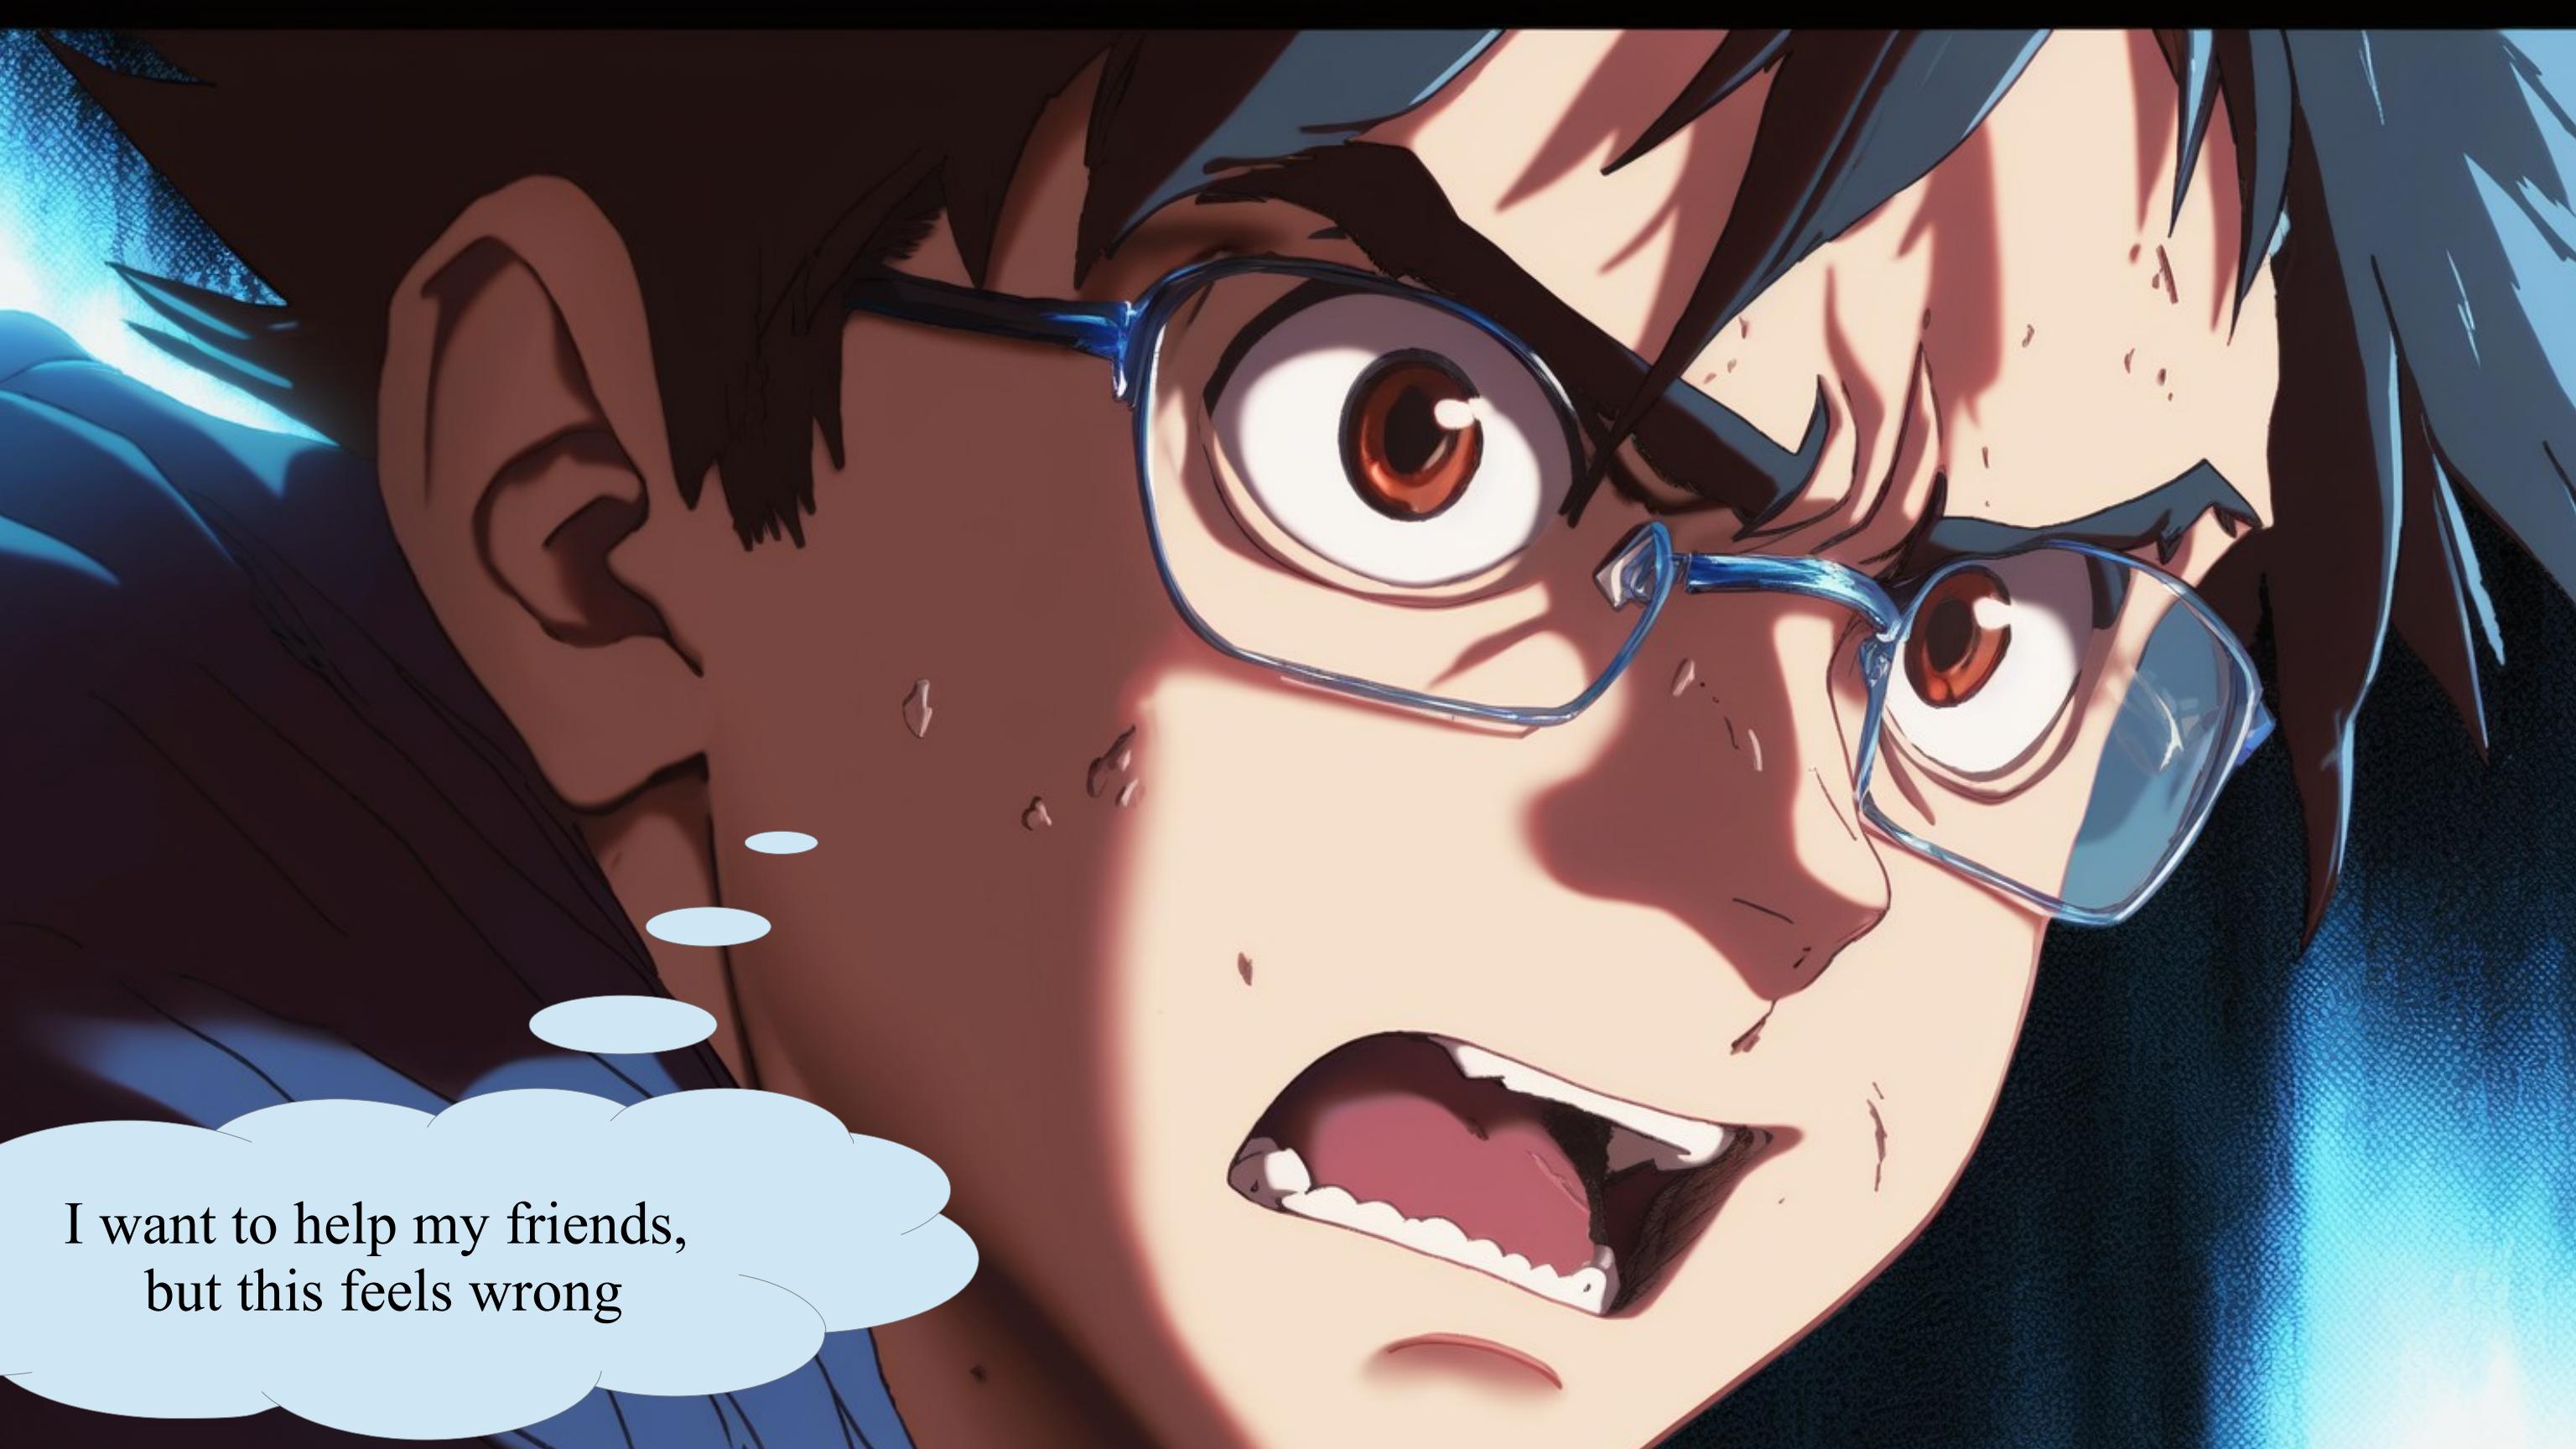

Hanton just got his pizza!
He is going to be distracted for a while

We can hurry
back to the dorm ...

then sneak into his room,
and steal his notes!

I want to help my friends,
but this feels wrong

If I don't help them,
they may try to get the notes anyway ...

and they could get hurt
in the process.

No! Riky,
NO!!

Ricky, ... he's so goofy.
I need to make sure they're safe

No! Ricky,
NO!!

I'll go with them and make sure things don't get out of hand.

The sun is setting right now...

We shall hurry!

Outside Hanton's door, in the dormitory

I don't know about this. Breaking in to steal someone's notes doesn't seem right.

Come on Dany, ...

we just need to have a look

*And we need those notes
to pass our courses*

We will make photocopies and then give them back

The door is locked!

*If we try to break in,
other students might notice*

I've got an idea

We can go up to the roof and climb down a rope to his window

I will do it!

A close-up, high-angle shot of a character's face. The character has long, spiky blue hair and is wearing black-rimmed glasses. Their eyes are large and light blue. They have a small, dark, triangular tattoo or birthmark on their upper lip. The character is looking directly at the viewer with a serious expression. The background is dark and out of focus.

I don't want anything to happen to you guys

I ... I'll go down the rope.

Are you sure, Dany?

with your thin arms
you would just fall down

I will go

Ok, I'll keep a lookout. Let's hurry!

*Wow, this building
is quite tall...*

Please,
hold tight to the rope!

I'm in!

Now I can just open the door
